“Non-stop box-office run for a continuous 25 weeks”
ONE OF THE HIGHEST GROSSING SOUTH INDIAN FILM OF 2008

6 months ago Singamuthu (Manivannan), a construction worker, ran away from his home in Chennai, South India. He left behind a family and a large amount of debt. His son Vetrivel (Vijay) aids the family as breadwinner. However, a debt collector warns him of a bounced cheque he recently received from Singamuthu. He gives Vetrivel an ultimatum... a week to clear all debts, or face repossession of the family home!

Vetrivel travels to Malaysia to meet Koccha (Suman), the man who originally gave the cheque to his father. In a stunning revelation he discovers that Koccha is actually a ruthless black marketer of conflict diamonds. Furthermore, he has enslaved the lives of many men, women and children within his Indian mines. One of them includes Singamuthu. Vetrivel decides to do the right thing, and bring his father home. The only question is how...?

Kuruvi, a blockbuster hit of 2008, stars Joseph Vijay Chandrasekhar who was christened “Vijay Ilayathalpathy – The Young General” by his legion of fans. A box office icon in contemporary Tamil cinema, his films are known for being all-rounder entertainers containing fast action, comedy, and songs. Kuruvi is no different, and features high production values and stunning cinematography. Expect a non-stop rollercoaster ride with this “Kuruvi” (Courier) in high definition.
